

LEVI M. ROBERTS.

[To accompany bill H. R. No. 219.]

MARCH 5, 1840.

Mr. RANDALL, from the Committee on Invalid Pensions, made the following

REPORT:

The Committee on Invalid Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of Levi M. Roberts, report :

That it appears the petitioner was, by an act of Congress approved 20th May, 1830, placed on the roll of invalid pensioners, at the rate of eight dollars per month, from the 1st day of January, 1828. The injury, to wit, the loss of a leg, for which he was, by the act above referred to, placed on the pension-roll, was received after his discharge from service under his engagements as a soldier, and while in the quartermaster's department, acting as deputy forage master, and receiving not less than $20 per month. His inability is total; and oppressed as he is, with the cares of a large family, and harassed with poverty, your committee have come to the conclusion to report a bill allowing him two dollars per month from the 1st of January, 1828, until the 1st of January, 1838, and to increase his pension from the latter period, for and during his natural life, to ten dollars per month. They therefore report a bill for his relief.

Mr. RANDALL, from the Committee on Invalid Pensions, reads the following

REPORT:

The Committee on Invalid Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of Levi M. Roberts, report:

That it appears the petitioner was, by an act of Congress approved 20th May, 1830, placed on the roll of invalid pensioners, at the rate of eight dollars per month, from the 1st day of January, 1822. The injury to which he was, by the act above referred to, placed on the pension-roll, was received after his discharge from service under his engagement as a soldier, and while in the quartermaster's department, acting as deputy forage master, and receiving not less than $20 per month. His inability is total; and oppressed as he is, with the cares of a large family, and harassed with poverty, your committee have come to the conclusion to report a bill allowing him two dollars per month from the 1st of January, 1822, until the 1st of January, 1832, and to increase his pension from the latter period, for and during his natural life, to ten dollars per month. They therefore report a bill for his relief.
